LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

CORFU TOWN

Beautiful Corfu, the northernmost of the Ionian Islands, is a sight for sore eyes. Filled with natural beauty, the island boasts rolling green hills in the south and rugged limestone rock formations in the north. It also has a mild climate, lush Mediterranean vegetation and some stunning beaches and underwater caves and tunnels.

Corfu Town is a maze of cobbled streets and elegant Venetian-era buildings. Be sure to take a stroll through the UNESCO World Heritage-listed old town, centered around the Esplanade and Liston Square, a vast green space guarded by two imposing 16th-century fortresses. Take this wonderful step back in time.

THE ACHILLEION

Just outside the village of Gastouri, 10km south-west of Corfu Town, this white neoclassical villa was the summer retreat of Sisi, Empress Elisabeth of Austria (1837-1898). A lover of beauty, Sisi immersed herself in the mythical history and lush nature of Greece. You can see inside the magnificent villa and explore the gardens, which are filled with towering palm trees and neoclassical statues to give you an idea of the idyllic world Sisi sought
